“At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, ‘Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?’ And Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in the midst of them, and said, ‘Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore whoever humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.’” Matt. 18:1-4

Commentary: “He also set the child in their midst, by the sight abashing them, and persuading them to be in like manner lowly and artless, since the little child is pure from envy, and from vain glory, and from longing for first place...Not courage alone, then, is wanted, nor wisdom, but this virtue also: humility and simplicity, I mean.” St. John Chrysostom
